TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 12.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

(Including Postage):

Entered at the Post Office at New York as sec-

PER PRANCH OFFICES

WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1267 BROADWAY. between 31st and 32d ats., New York. IROOKLYN — 35d FULTON St. HARLEM — News Department, 150 East 125th St.; Ad-vertisements at 237 East 115th St.

PHILADELPHIA, PA. - LEDGER BUILDING, 112 THEFRE WASHINGTON-61014TH ST. N OFFICE-34 COCRPUB ST., TRAFAL

The bill providing for the ventilation and lighting of the Fourth Avenue Railway vesterday the signature of Gov. victory for THE EVENING WORLD, and that after the bardest and most protracted fight which the paper has ever carried to a finish. But it is the people who are to be congratulated on the issue, for the interests at stake were those of the people.

of those years the New York Central has people's safety and carry it to success. How the fight was initiated and carried

THE EVENING WORLD OF the Legislature.

Gov. Hill's approval of the bill is grati fying, not only as an indorsement of th measure's use and importance, but as evidenne of the State Executive's constant sympathy with great causes which are for the people's good.

The United States Supreme Court dare to hope yesterday that it had finally disposed of the cases of four of New York's WOOD, SHIRUYA JUGIRO, HARRIS A. SMILER and JAMES J. SLOCUM. That the hope was a vain one was demonstrated within a few urs after the Court had affirmed the ounsel for Woon then openly stated that he bad already found a point for a fresh plans looking to a movement for a new

In opinions accompanying the decision at Washington against two of the four murdecers named, it is plainly intimated that the New York Circuit Court is making too in which the lawyers for the con no reason for the appeal save to delay execution of the sentence. With such recog nition of the statutory abuses possible seems as if we should not be obliged to sugaring manners. wait long for the remedy. It has been far too long the case that New York can con vict, but cannot punish its murderers.

forethought would now be free with $20,000 in his pocket. He was sentenced to five It was nearly a brilliant success, and is good material for those who contend for the intelligence of the negro.

Flipping a penny for $1,000 a flip is pretty steep gambling for Boston town. After a New Bedford man had lost $15,000 by this flippancy he staked $10,000 against his opponent's winnings, and his adversary won again. Twenty-five thousand dollars on the toss of a cent is worse than bacca rat. To think of such a thing in the gelid, thoughtful atmosphere of the Hub! The man who lost was not a Bostonian, it is

An Italian Anarchist, returning from America to his native shores, has been re-Reved at Naples both of his liberty and of thirty-three dynamite cartridges, with which latter, had he not been delayed in his voyage, he would have attempted some May-Day surprises. Yet if this men had been ned in America his suffering country

Public Safety there said that he might just pa as well open a theatre for a theatrical perormance on Sunday as to let Ingunsont. seture, Can it be that he thinks Mr. In-

The Washington Post asserts that the ex orne by GEORGE M. PULLMAN. How vividly this charge brings to mind the virtues of that statesman of our own com always " pays the freight."

A wonne man of Lowell in his cops kissed a modest maiden at the cross-ways, and reply. .83.50 was therefore arraigned in court. He said "Well, it's very queer that none of them he thought it was his sister. Even if the came back. Did you speak of the heatplea had been admitted, what Judge would ; ers ! believe that a young man could not refrain from kissing his sister on the street?

A blind girl eloping with a married man to whom she mad: over her whole fortune of $12,000 is certainly a very blind girl indeed. Any one whose brain was not blinded ought to have seen that this was reckless. Love was very blind in this case. where they leaked. Nobody got onto the

An inventor who was struggling with the problem of making a wheel turn by sending water that was past back to do be a row on either aide while anybody was more work on the wheel lost his mind and looking through." took his life. It was a new case of water prize-fight that "a barbed wire fence separated the cheaper sents from the higher-Thus is completed another the affair knew their patrons so well?

> A San Francisco paper has these two planks in a proposed platform for 1892; American wages for American workmen, and common sense for American politics.

It is charged that McKINLEY hasn't humor enough to be really popular in Ohio. Evidently his Tariff bill hasn't been thor. oughly studied out there.

Troy politicians are accused of protect ing burglars. A case of sympathy among fellow-spotismen, perhaps.

able third party organization is to come with next February.

Our Giant; kept the Pittsburg smoke out of their eyes yesterday, anyway.

The King of Grosce has not spill all his fat in the fire. He has cleared $5,000,000 on the London

Harrison may not be "tripping in his speech, The Wemen's Industrial Langue may have inderse un is due to her leaning fowards good living.

The springshue poet
Was beard to sigh;
"The nights grow aborter
And so do l."
Judge.

to that she feels that she is a Bill poster

WORLDLINGS.

Francisque Sarcey, the eminent French dramatic critic, is sixty-four years old, but a ferble and indefaugable writer. For years he has contributed tourteen or more columns a week of dramatic criticism to his paper, and his pen shows no signs of brother of Dr. Phillips Brooks, the great Boston preacher. The New York minister is not so large man phreseatly as his Boston brother, and lool much like the typical hughtsh fiquire.

The grave of Brigham Young is covered by a plain

Mim Annie De Barr, the young Chicago worn who carms a living by running a stationary engine, is a slight creature of delicate physique. The is about cirty years old, of medium height, and has ver

VACRANT VERSES

Three Laughs

Then to pay him that she related a tale.
Of a girl who wore her last Wenter's bonust.
At an Easter crush, with a hid-sine well.
While her own was as event as a new Sp

socues:
So he klaved her semis more
At teat, and he sories
Twas all quite boo uttery lung. "Ho-ho
Ho-ho-ho-ho-m queer!
Ho-ho-ho-hi-how queer!
Ho-ho-ho-hi-ho-ho-n-n!"

A Brave Man. In war's grim battle lines he'd stood.
Where builets flow it's thickest:
For despirate deeds of marnihood
He volunteered the quickest.

No danger could his soul appall: His spirits naught e er blinted. In tropic jungles of Bengal, i he siger he had hunted. He's sought the bear 'mid Arctic snow, And o'er the ice is 'd chased it -In fact, no perit earth could abow, But this brave man has faced it.

Ha'd slain the mighty elephant Upon the someh'd squator; But let, though built in dalmant, He dars mut have a restaurant, Unions ha'd tipped too waiter!—Exchang

Here Is a Point to remember.-Hood's Sarsaperilla is a modern medicine, originated by thoroughly medicine, originated by thoroughly competent pharmacists, and still prepared under their personal supervision. Every ingredient used is strictly pure, and is the best of its kind it is pos-

SKETCHES BY

" All Modern Conveniences. "Ind you say anything to the partie monwealth whose pride it is that he himself | who came to rent the house before you Duplex Dress Skirts - A Rather moved ont "" naked a Brooklyn landlord of an ex-tenant whom he met on the street.

"Why, I merely said that two of the family froze to death last Winter while I was burning twenty-two tons of coal." " And the roof ?" "It leaks in sixteen different places, but didn't show 'em but five or six." " And the plumbing ?" "Oh, I had rage tied around the pipes

" And the neighborhood !" "Cracked it way up : didn't happen to

"Didn't anybody complain of the dark rooms  "Not a one, All of 'em happened to have It is instructive to read in the report of a sore eyes and preferred a subdued light." "Well, it's very, very queer. Here it is way slong in May, and that house stands priced ones." Is it that the conductors of empty yet. I guess I'll have to get a new agent to take charge."

He Wasn't Pa.

A Third avenue train was whooping along above Forty-second street when a child about three years old, who was held in its mother's lap, looked fixedly at the gentleman on her right, and called out :

"Ma! ma! That ain't my pa, is it !" "No, no! Hush, dear!" chided the nother.

"His breff just smell like pa's doesthat's all!" confinued the child as she sniffed to get another scent of it. About fourteen passengers heard her renarks, and they eazed at the man with a breff" so fixedly that he got up and walked to the other end of the car.

Why He Shivered. They sat on a bench in Madison Square Park as the sun went down and the bright stars twinkled in the sky like new ten-cent at the threat or as an ornament for the shoulpieces held up to so many knot-holes, | der er coreage. Vehicles rumbled, newsboys shouted, humanity passed and repassed, but what was earth to them? Her Greetan face was upturned in such a way that the freekle on her nose was in the shadow, while he clasped her hand and bent his bazel eyes n the toothpick toes of his patent leathers and seemed to be dreaming. All at once, as suddenly as if a cat had been dropped from a fourth-story window, a shiver ran brough his manly frame.

"Alfred, what is it ?" she cried in alarm as she sprang up.

Ho was silent. 'Alfred, do you doubt my love?" He shivered again.

"You do-you do! You have discovered that Algernon Hawkins sent me a six shil-ling bouquet, and you conclude that I intend a crown lining. It is ready to make a calld's o shake you! Oh! Alfred, what can I say

"Sit down, darling!" he interrupted, in voice as rich as Mississippi bottom lands.

"But you doubt me!" " No. darling !"

"Fifteen cents."

on the wall:

"Then-then, why these shivers ?" "Nothing, my birdling-nothing, except that I have been idiot enough to change my Winter socks too soon and have struck a snow-bank."

Shaving It Close. "How much for a shave here?" he aske. of a Court street barber in Brooklyn tween two shops. Go shead-full shave-

A Lost Criticism.

Dam Smith, Gray & Ca 's Houthly, that he has bought)-Now, Major, I knew how Strictly Honest.

| New South, Groy & Co.'s Menthly.]
| Clerk-The regular price of this cont

Dreams Vs. Nightmares.

freamed of you last night.

way, near White street.

| From Smith, Gray & Co.'s Monthly,] -Oh, by the way, Mr. Softhed.

ONLY ONCE IN A DECADE.

A Bare Opportunity to Make Money

on Summer Clothing.

It is only once in a decade that such an on portunity is given to purchase fine clothing at half-price as is offered this week by Eugene

P. Perser at his two stores, 123 Fulton street etween Nassau and William, and 585 Broad-entire stock of travellers' samples and goods out in the hands of tallors during the great fire in Bleecker street, when Cohnfel i's Folly was burned. He rurchased these goods from the . Peyser was so fortunate as to secure the Thompson (the falgens critic, who are been

M. QUAD.

lots of lather-no talk!"

"How much for half a shave ?" "Lend me a pencil, will you?" Having got one, he put the figures down

"I see," he said, as he returned the pen-"I save a cent by getting a full chave here, instead of dividing my custom bebefore the back hair to natabed.

ringhams and organites have fitted linings rell boned, and frimmings of allk or ribbon. The foundation skirts are of sateen, with backs. invited up by the Major to see a new painting it would be if you would persist in buying ward University or the endowment of research, plerares without consultation. You have been cheated on this Lindscape. Why, the color- American Archicology and Ethnology, and house is incredible, and those trees impossible!

Don't take it—don't take it!

Major Newton—Well, seeing that you say so special assistant of the museum, done excellent is my hock with-new you are tooking out of, and the picture is at the other end of the countries. The endowment, 230,000, we introduce the New York Tanahar. largest that has ever been given for a single twenty dollars; but you may have it for eigh- tritls of luce, are on sale in the local abops for

He (complimental)-ilow good of you; dre on of me?

She-On, it was that Lobster Salad, I'm in gold, and some of these have feather borsante; it never does agree with me at night.

drings, now and pretty, but decidedly easily dirings, now and pretty, but decidedly easily pertat at-le.

Roads to Happineza. " You never saw any horseback riding dos

Giving the Go By. carriages must not expect to be noticed by the people who ride in them." "Way not?"

"How can the latter help going by the former?" Off Color.

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR, ONE OF THE MYSTERIES OF HU- CHANGES AT THE THEATRES.

t the fictitious woes of a singe hero-

Ready for Anything.

my dear Ramarck! What has happened? Eausret - Don't is alarmed, old fellow. You see, Mrs. Eauaret Joned a "First Aid to the injured" class during Lent, and we're giving the children a few lessons.

Mr. Bulwer-Da's all right, the done it bisself when I wus reasonth' wiv him, an' I's keepin' nim dar ter 'n exampe t' dat scaramouch bruwer o' his's oher ... fence.

Reciprocity. Fram the Epo

' Yes. "
· Well, he's just been swearing at me. ' "On, that's merely are friendliness

Mrs. Blossom - How peculiarly your husband acte? Is he intoxicated?

Mrs. Buzzer-No, he is sober; and it's the first time I've seen him that way in years.

Vagrant-I am a builder.
"What do you build?"
"Castles in the ait."

(From the Rider and Driver,) Mr. Prosey ((resting his best girl to a ride)-The Greetse fillet of risson is an effective You know Smith? He's too lineral; the ornament for ladies with a finely shaped bend too line with him is that he's not close enough for ma own good, who adopt the pepular mode of heal dress, the

Not Enough I From Brooklyn Life 1 He (passionately) -One his before I go Ambiguous.

A General Concurrence. Bloomer-Don't you thing the high hats worn y the wamen should be abolished? Blossom (who has just poid a milliaer's bill)

Audisned? Of course I do.

Blosmer—Especially in he theatres.

Rica-om-Tecutres or churches, they should be shoulaned. What we want is a low-proced as every time.

She Is Now

then. Justice.

ance to enable a girl to play on two plat once.
W. ek :_Was there anything in it?
Day—Yes; he got six mounts.

Another Joke on the Finest. 1 From Brookign Lare. 1 "Do you believe the bad copper always Vokes at Daly's.

Richard Mansfield in "A Parisian Romance" at the Garden.

"Percy Pendragon," "My Milliner's Bill and "My Lord in Livery" was the triple bill offered to the public by dainty Rosina Vokes at Daly's Theatre tast night, and a highly enjoy able bill it was, too. Nothing in Miss Vokes's repertoire is so charming as "My Milliner" Bill," a comedi tia with which we now assect-ste her. She sang "Hs 'Art Was True to Poll" as blithely and ss gracefully as ever.

tomance" has always been a favorite one with Richard Mansfield. He has won much dramatic ideas uni mited scope. Last night Mr. Mansfield revived "A l'arisian Romance" audience with it. His company did good work.

"A Midnight Boll," Hoyl's play, began a work's engagement at the Columbus Theatre, Harlem, last night. It is well known to the heatre-goers of this city, but it is ctill vital, because it appeals strongly and pleasingly to human nature. The school-boise scene is a lelightful piece of work, and it always "goes competent one.

"Little Lord Fauntierry" has been giving us a long rest, but last night he reappeared in this city, and was seen at the Windsor Theatre. this city, and was seen at the Windsor Theatre. Mrs. Frances Hodgeon Burnett's play was so good the tit become the craze, and the trouble with crazes is that they wert themselves out. "Little Lori Founteror," however, was received with much approval last night. Ray Maskell was the Cetric Errol. H, B. JACOBS' THEATRE.

Lydia Thompson appeared in her farce-comedy, "The Dazzer," at the Grand Operatione, asabe as well knows now to do. Her dancing was graceful and repiglely, and ane is wise enough to give us very little vocal entertainment. Her company is an excellent one, and the specialties introduced by its various in mitera are lively and smusing.

Miss Alien's Kingaros dance as usual creates a furor. Jermes charming one act piece "Barbara," prec-ded the play.

LEE AZENTIA CAMBERS ALIEN'S CHARMING OF ALIENTAL CAMBERS ALIEN'S CHARMING OF ALIENTAL CHARMING OF ALIENT FOURTEENTH STREET THEATRE.

FOURTRENTH STREET THEATRE.

"McCariny's Mishapa, "a farce-comedy, was presented at the Fourteenth Street Theatre last night. It does not call for any criticism, but with its songs and dances, serves its purpose—that of causing a laugh or two. The company was good, and included Barney Fersuson, Charles Gorman, George Crump, Carrie Behr, the three St. Felix Sisters, Luzzle Conway, Gertrude Fort and Martha Ferguson.

HARLEM OPERA-HOURE.

HARLEM OPERA-HOUSE.

"Nordeck" was the play at Hammerstein's Harlem Ouera-House tast incht, the star being the ever-popular Frank Mayo. "Nordeck" is an interesting play, with well-mana editional and dialogue that possesses much interary merit. Mr. Mayo was well supported. He will repeat "Nordeck" to night and tomorraw night. The rest of the week will be devoted to "Dayy Crockett." TONY PARTOR'S.

day at Doris's Eighth Avenue Musee, and well aung, too. The cast was as follows: Beiting, Mus Aller Markett, Miss Gertruce Sauger; Frederica, Miss Florence Sterwood; Rocco, Thomas Whyte; Phypo, Harry Lugard; Matulo, W. H. Cookin; Purofante, Miss Jennie Miller, and Lorenzo, James H. Donnelly, Doris's specialty company gave a vaudeville performance.

WORTH'S MURRUM. A very good entertainment was given upon the stage of worth's Museum yesterday. A number of popular people appeared in special ties, among them sein; Fleding and Walker, T. J. He run, Andy Column, who is a host in binned; James W. Thompson, De Krek and Girard, Unaries Devere and Kitts Smab. The curro halls were full of novelties. The attendance during the day was large.

"The Tar and the Tartar" is an agreeable processing the transition of the single and the conference of the process. It is only in the popular ties, and coherent. It is also sincere in its purposes, and it is written with the object of amusing the public, rather than that of affording the day was large.

Comic opera is rapidly stepping away from its HURER'S PALACE MUSEUM.

A six days' rowing match was been at Hiber's calace Museum re-terday. The contestants were women, who use i road-sculing machines, and recorded the miles as fast as they were made by a clever mechanical contrivance. Other attractions were foureils, "who handless

KOSTER AND BIAL'S. Sherman and Morrissey, the well-known comedians; Lillie Western, John Lettleir, the sh dowgraphist; Dixon and Lang, and Paul Laville were among the specialty artists at Koster & Bial's concert half last night. Carmendia danced three of her delightful Spanish unness, said Jennie Joice appeared as Adam in "Auam's Tempiation; or, Birus of Paridise."

Brooklyn Theatres. PARK THEATRE.

A collection of amusing absurdities, which contain many homely truths is found in "A Texas Steer," one of hoy?'s newsat plays, which was produced at Col. Sind's Park Theories last night. As a fan masker the play is all that could be desired, particularly with "I im Murphy, Newton Chenell, Jalian Mitchell and Flora Walsu as the prime movers. William S. Harkins, Berry Maswell, Georgia Lase and Mrs. Arice Wash were excellent in their respective parts. APECTIVE PARTS.

Hoy's ever-popular "Bunch of Keys" was precented to the Novelty Toeatre patrons last night with a good cast. The tribulations of W. C. Crosbie as the hotel-keeper, were intrusted by Ada Bothaer, Adele Keno and Grace Vauran as the sprightly unoth of keys, and Louis Wesley as the irrepressible trimes, HUBER AND GESHARDT'S CASINO.

At the resting bill of attractions is presented at Hober & Gebnardt's Cosino bill week, headed by sillo. Creek, a remarkably clever damer. Charles H. Duncan in ack again with a new budget of songs, and Flora Hantaga is adding to her former successes. George Holloway and Minne Schult complete the list. HOLMES'S STAR THEATRE.

A very popular play is "Under the Gaslight," with lots of taking scenery and many true characters of metropoliten life. It was given by a well-balanced company at the Star Treastre last right. There is some incidental husness-dancing, singing and an exhibition of

The Finest Bread

Is made with Royal Baking Powder. Always light, sweet, pure and wholesome.

A Triple Bill Given by Rosina WANN BROTHERS.

BUSINESS BOOMING!

PLENTY OF HELP TO WAIT ON EVERY ONE,

GONTINUATION SALE OF

The Fine Merchant-Tailor Clothing Stock of

UNDERHILL, CORNELL & BROWN'S The role of Baron Chevrial in "A Paristan FINE SUITS, OFFICE COATS AND VESTS, ALPACA COATS. OUTING COATS. WHITE VESTS, PANTALOONS, Go at About Half Price.

BOYS' SUITS, SAILOR SUITS, YOUNG MEN'S SUITS,

UNDERHILL, CORNELL & BROWN.

746, 748 and 750 Broadway, corner Aster Place. Bargains at Our Grand Street Store.

BROTHERS.

AMPRION ACADEMY.

B. B. JACOBS THEATRE.

Sweet hitle Ger is Homan was the star at H.

R. Jacobs' Theorie last night. The appeared by the star is the star is Gus Williams and John T. Kelly appeared a the Lee Avenue Academy of Music last night in "U & L." The entertainment abounded is specialties, among the cleverest of which was the amag and dance by Miss Florrie West. Miss May Yoke was in good voice and rendered appearance and rendered the several selections in a pleasing manner. As several selections in a pleasin: manner. As-sistant Manager Laurent Howard's benefit will occur next Monday evening, after which the theatre will close for the season. HYDE AND BEHMAN'S.

Boxing and buriesque and burie

"THE TAR AND THE TARTAR." It was not an operatic buris or a buriettish swelter through at l'almer's Theatre last night. made: no apologies were uttered. To be read The warm weather did not keep the people away from Tony Pastor's last night. They of oked there, as usual, and were well rearred. The programms included Frank Bush, the ever-increasing; Flora Moore, "the great" Letry Dolly, the hidgleys, the Moriey Iro; A. O. Duncan, a hig is entertining wentraloguist; Lord and Rowe, the Fizzgibbon sisters and Adriau, a magician. Mr. Smith is a bold young man. He actually ally set about the task of unfolding it in a It is perhaps as well to say that the McCaull plot had every oppo, anity, and that-oh! beard would again adorn his visage. heresy! -- it was positively amusing and refresh-

"The Tar and the Tartar" is an agreeable poses, and it is written with the object of amusing the public, rather than that of afford-Comic opera is rapidly stepping away from its recognized ration detre. "The Tar and the Tartat" has nothing to hasten its descent, and would get enough to retire on, for this old best for that let us be thank'ul. Mr. Smith's story restization. He outlined several funny situations and tailed to fill them in. His second act venomous taitlespakes and mon-ter align-tors; 'Romeo, a stallion; 'Swips," a paby donkey; the Turtle Boy, Lewis and Paul.

tions and tailed to fill them in. His second act seemed to be pregnant with humorous possi-dunkey; the Turtle Boy, Lewis and Paul. milities. Yet they were but disappointingly developed.

> woven around Muley Ha-son, a sailor shipwrecked near the co at of Morocco, and weloverwhelmed at the unexpected royalty of the greeting, but his joys are tinged with bitterness when he discoverers that he is the husband of four hundre i women and the father of thirteen jugal assemblage, is Alp-ca, a former wife however. of the occasion. There is a lesions lower, various funny men, and an amusing situation in Herbert Denman for a moment. He looked the third act. Mr. Smith is clever and de-well. Mr. Denman's portrait at the Society of cidedly ingenious, and if his guiding star be W. S. Glibert-well, he has a very good guiding star, and there you are. The music is furnished by Adam Itzel, ir.

of Britimore, who "conducted" last night frantic context outst, re dy to " context " upon the slightest provocation. Mr. Itzel is not freighted with any mu ical ideas of his own. He has powers of sadmilation, how-ver, and assimilates very nicely. I am quite sore are unable to distinguish between the meum and tuum of a situation, and are innocent of evil intention for all that. Mr. Itzel's seems to be all that we can get nowadays. In days - " Wang," and the Tartar "- not a ray of musical inspiration has been shot through the dreary labyrints of the "pleasing and graceful," Diguy Bell was very much in evidence as vas as creditable as anything he has ever done, and se labored diligently. Mrs. Laura Joyce Bell, who did not have much opportunity to shine by the side of her husband's electric glare, was the Alpaca. Annie Meyers, Helen Bertram and Josephine Knupp were eminently successful. Hubert Wilke was guttural and poseful. yet he liked himself, so that he was not totally without admirera.

"The Tar and Tartar" was beautifully staged and admirably costumed. My compilments to Harry Askin, the able and plucky young man who has taken hold of the McCaul ALAN DALB

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE.

Among our many Parlor Suites are some twenty patterns designed from the latest and richest styles, so exceedingly tasty, so very novel and elegant that the pric *, $7% to $150, seemingly, do not represent one-fourth their value.

We beg an inspection of our Bedroom Suites. As extraordinary variety, included in which are som fifty entirely new styles in ash, natural ob-

Dining Furniture. Especially attractive and complete is our line of

FURNITURE MAKERS.

104, 106, 108 WEST 14TH ST.

again, with Fall days in May. What we have had in that line is so much more than suf manuer that indicated some slight interest in street about whose face there was much that it, and some intention of arousing a similar looked very familiar. Closer inspection feeling in the public. Very few stars, nowashowed that it was Bobbie Van Boskerok with > tion in a box. The Autique Tar is se having himself called into being this fiction of has been in Brooklyn and New York, and it is

Lines are plentiful on the streets just at present. They are fragrant and pretty in color, and the chesp price at which a spray toes makes it easy for any one to have this

The Columbia Grammar boys trooped around to the Berkeley yesterday and asked Dr. White to let his pupils have a holiday, as they had carried off such good trophies in the events at the Oval last week. Visits were made by the boys to the different private schools, the crowd nundred and thirteen children. Yet this is gathering new augment at each, until quite a not the worst. The leader of his army of mob of young fellows were parading the wives, the ringleader of this irrepressible oon-

American Artists is very good.

At the crossing at Twenty-third street I saw it a brisk, newsy sheet. In the work of housedeaning which Commissioner of Jurors Bernard F. Martin is engaged in, I understand that a portrait of ex-Mayor Giace, which occupied position in the Commissioner's office, has been removed. One of Mayor Grant will probably the three mus cal productions of the last few William Earl Dodge Slokes, the young days — "Wang," "Apollo," and "The Tar militonaire real estate owner and builder, I am informet, has recently joined the Tam many Hall organization in the Eleventh As. sembly District and gone into training as a Congressional candidate to succeed the late Muley Hassan. There was a tride too much of Gen. Spinola. Mr. Stokes is noted for a peca-Mr. Bell (yes, old subscriber, it is possible to liarity of dress quite as distinguishing as was have too much of a good thing), yet his work the broad expanse of linen which earned for Gen. Spinola the nickname of "Shirt Collar," Should Mr. Stokes be elected to Congress be would probably be dubbed "Red Recktie" Stokes.

> who has made the magnificent Sagamore Hotel, on Green Island, Lake George, what it is, has notified me that be to at home at 5 Hast Fourteenth street on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays this month, after which he will ge

THE Price of MONERAL'S Teething Cordial places.

THE TUNNEL PIGHT WON.

The law which is now enacted should have been in force ten years ago. For nine been running in direct and reckdisperard of a Grand Jury's manyet none has been found, THE EVENING WORLD stepped into the breach, to take up the cause of the

and the story does not need repetifelicitations to the people whom it serves. It desires to exthe work done by Assemblyman WILLIAM Surger, who introduced the original Tunne Assemblyman WALTER BYRNE, Senator ABEARN and others during the struggle in MURDERERS AND THE LAW.

ed murdorets, namely, Joseph judgment against these four mon, for the appeal. In the case of Justine there are free use of the writ of habeas corpus. This cossed city let in Sale Lake City, surreunded by a intimation shows the recognition by the low iron faces. A few of the proper's wives in Court of the quibbling with legal forms burled near by. demued men are indulging. As to the system will, plain house on Massachusetts avenus. She is still quite young, not more than Jugiro case the Court even says that it sees twenty-five, and the leads a retired life with nor under the present condition of things, it

A negro in the State Penitentiary at Lansing, Kan., but for a little too much years' imprisonment for forgery, While in jail he forged a check on a bank, which was paid, and then forged his own pardon. He asked in it that this pardon should be restored to him as a means of identification at the War Department. Here was the weak point in the negro's scheme, for the Warden wished to keep the pardon, as it was his only warrant for releasing the prisoner. He wrote the War Department, and the whole thing came out.

would have demanded an indomnity, Col. ROBERT INSERSOLL was not allowed to deliver a Sunday-night lecture in Pittaburg. The Chief of the Department of Fads, Fashions and Fancies That Delight the Gentler Sex.

Expensive Orchid -Ribbon Bows on Dresses-Pretty Hat for a Child - Four - Button Gloves in Vogue.

The dress skirt of the hour is a duplex affair, consisting of a foundation double-faced and knife-plaited with allk-same stiffening and braid-and the "drop" of material, so called because it drops from the same belt as the lining, witness tacking or planing.

and form, with a solutaire for the heart and of $300. This jewel can be worn in the hair,

One of the new brooch designs is a bird's head of enamel or chased gold, with fine jew wings, no doubt, some one has originated a

They are costly, require very careful handling and a nice degree of culture to be appre batton gloves are sufficient for all ordinary

Get a black leghorn and plant a branch o ming hats and the bodies of fine dresses.

are produced in white and black thread lace.

bows, copied from the French schools,

Mrs. Franklin Atherton, the author of the is a descendant of Benjamin Franklin, Miss cal stories of early and contemporary Spanish Conquest of the Dona Jacoba," having been accepted by Blacktrood's Magazine, Another first appearance in an English magezine. Ribbon bows are sewed all over house and dinner dresses. They loop up lace flounces and suk ruffles, ornament shoulders and onfis and frequently run down the side seam of the

"A Ramble with Enlogia," will also make its Women appounces the fact that England, to workers than any other country, "12 per cent.

bends to the shape of the head and is inviscely fastened in the back by means of a hair wire Washable frocks no longer wash, as fine slightly draped or plain fronts and gatheres A new fellowship has been founded at flarin connection with the Prabody Museum of Nigatgowns, with tooked yokes and little Jewelled laces are among the new things of the year, and in these moonstones and jet together play their part. Flying birds and nonquets of flowers united by the Empire bow. a rought in beads and jewels, are smong the principal patterns into which these jewels are intro suced. A potent rival to laces, however, daning for more) What could have made you are the embroidered lieses and crepes wrought

> "And yet how many times have the able been used as bridal paiks," [From the Rider and Driver.]

GARDEN THEATRE.

WINDSOR THEATRE.

Call (who drops to unexpectedly) -Goodness

Something Unusual.

Architectural Note. Judge-What trade do you fot aw? He Sat too Far Away.

who adopt the peguiar interest of wire, which you're not close enough yourself, you're not close enough yourself, that from the head and is invisity dering just what she meant.)

curious credenilal from one of our customers.

(Nork—'' B. forg I took your Ellxir my face when a such I you ought to see it now. Send us another bottle for my mother-in-law.'

" Was that your sister I saw you with jast night ?"
.. Not when you saw me; I hadn't asked her (From Broadlyn Grs.)
Day—A friend of mine has p stented an appli-

"Yes after all the fighting is done and his services are not needed."

Parlor Furniture.

Bedroom Furniture.

Side Tables, Couches, China Closets, &c., at wer

THE CLEANER Many people on the "L" trains downtown coats behind because they hadn't quite apprehope the weather is not going to be caprio days, would consent to appear in a comic opera the pointed beard of gold which used to with a plot, and divide the honors with a story. decorate his face all gone. If Robert only appreclated that he had razored away what gave him quite an air of distinction the pour There is an Ancient Mariner who haunts the streets with some sort of marine repres too drearily familiar to the eyes.

The story of "The Tar and the Tartar" is sweetly perfuming flower in a room.

I hear that the Xavier Club is to publish a club paper soon. The name has not yet been fully decided upon. The club is a live body and who was a comedy all in himself--a sort of and if they get out a paper will probably make > soon be seen hanging in its stead. William Earl Dodge Stokes, the young

Mr. Myron O. Brown, the popular bouifm